Musical Prelude

Welcome

Meditation for Worship: Touch not my anointed ones, do my prophets no harm. - Psalm 105:15

"They are not distinguished by external dignity, numbers and power, as Rome sets forth the marks of her communion. They are in the midst of kingdoms, but not of them. They form usually the humblest portions of most communities, and yet they receive honor from God. Despised by the world, but unto God kings and priests, ordained and anointed to reign with Christ forever." - W. Wilson

Interlude

Call to Worship Psalm 119:170-172

LEADER: Let my plea come before you;

PEOPLE: deliver me according to your word.

LEADER: My lips will pour forth praise.

PEOPLE: for you teach me your statutes.

LEADER: My tongue will sing of your word,

ALL: for all your commandments are right.

Musical Prelude

Welcome

Meditation for Worship: Behold, you delight in truth in the inward being, and you teach me wisdom in the secret heart.
- Psalm 51:6

"The copulative particle which connects the two clauses, implies the correspondence between the revelation of the divine will on the one part and the desire and prayer of the penitent heart on the other. "What I want thou hast promised to give." Repentance and faith are the gifts of God, and the awakened mind is conscious that they are so."

- Thomas T. Biddulph

Musical Prelude

Welcome

Meditation for Worship: O God, hear my prayer; give ear to the words of my mouth. - Psalm 54:2

"This has ever been the defense of the saints. As long as God has an open ear we cannot be shut up in trouble. All other weapons may be useless, but all prayer is evermore available. No enemy can spike this gun." - Charles Spurgeon

Interlude

Call to Worship Psalm 77:11-13

LEADER: I will remember the deeds of the LORD:

PEOPLE: yes, I will remember your wonders of old.

LEADER: I will ponder all your work,

PEOPLE: and meditate on your mighty deeds.

LEADER: Your way, O God, is holy.

Musical Prelude

Welcome

Meditation for Worship: Let me hear what God the LORD will speak, for he will speak peace to his people, to his saints; but let them not turn back to folly. - Psalm 85:8

“Carnal men speak peace to themselves on account of some supposed goodness in themselves. But an upright heart will not be satisfied without hearing God speak peace to his heart by his Spirit. This peace brings joy, yet it is also a humbling, melting peace, which brings humiliation to the soul not to turn again to folly; but this never happens when men speak peace to themselves.” - John Berridge

Interlude

Call to Worship

Psalm 104:33-35

LEADER: I will sing to the LORD as long as I live;

PEOPLE: I will sing praise to my God while I have being.

LEADER: May my meditation be pleasing to him,

PEOPLE: for I rejoice in the LORD.

LEADER: Let sinners be consumed from the earth, and let the wicked be no more!

ALL: Bless the LORD, O my soul! Praise the LORD!

Invocation

Welcome

Meditation for Worship: The LORD is near to the brokenhearted and saves the crushed in spirit. - Psalm 34:18.

"Oh, this is the misery of all miseries which ministers have most cause to complain of, that men are not fitted enough for Jesus Christ, that they are not lost enough in themselves for a savior. O that God would awaken and shake some sin-sleeping soul this day, so they would cry out, "None but Christ; nothing but Christ; ten thousand worlds for Christ!" - James Nalton - 1664

Interlude

Call to Worship Psalm 148:13-14

LEADER: Let them praise the name of the LORD,

PEOPLE: for his name alone is exalted;

Meditation for Worship: Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.
- Romans 5:1

"Before our justification by God on the basis of Christ's work, we were not at peace with God. We actually hated God, hated others, and hated ourselves. We would have done away with God if we could. But having been justified by faith in Jesus Christ, this state of spiritual warfare has been changed to one of peace with God, others, and ourselves. This is the first great benefit of our justification."

Musical Prelude

Welcome

Meditation for Worship: Who can discern his errors? Declare me innocent from hidden faults. - Psalm 19:12

"Who can tell how often he is offensive? No man. The hairs of a man's head may be told, the stars appear in multitudes, but no arithmetic can number our sins. Many have unknown sins, as a man may have a mole on his back and himself never know it. We must learn to see our spots. We have many spots which God does not hear about from us, because we see them not in ourselves. The sight of sins is a great happiness to the Christian, for it causes a candid confession." - Thomas Adams

Interlude

Call to Worship Psalm 33:1,4-5

LEADER: Shout for joy in the LORD, O you righteous!

PEOPLE: Praise befits the upright.

LEADER: For the word of the LORD is upright,

PEOPLE: and all his work is done in faithfulness.

LEADER: He loves righteousness and justice;

ALL: the earth is full of the steadfast love of the LORD.

Meditation for Worship: You are my king, O God; ordain salvation for Jacob. - Psalm 44:4

"If there were no creature, no instrument in the world to help you, yet you would not be at a loss in time of need, for he that is on the throne could do it alone. His bare word is sufficient, all-sufficient for it, whatever it be, however great, how difficult, how impossible so ever it seems. There needs no more to deliver you, to deliver his people anywhere, but only the command of him that sits on the throne."
- David Clarkson

Welcome

Meditation for Worship: For you will not abandon my soul to Sheol, or let your holy one see corruption. - Psalm 16:10

"Holiness preserves the soul from dereliction in the state of death, and the body of the saint from corruption in the grave. In this the Spirit of God puts an emphasis upon holiness, as counter working and prevailing over death and the grave. It is this and nothing but this, that thus keeps the man, dead and buried, from desertion in death, and corruption in the grave." - George Hughes

Musical Prelude

Welcome

Meditation for Worship: Whom have I in heaven but you? And there is nothing on earth that I desire besides you. - Psalm 73:25

"How small is the number of those who keep their affections fixed on God alone. We see how superstition joins to him many others as rivals for our affections. While the Papists admit in word that all things depend upon God, they are, nevertheless, constantly seeking to obtain help from this and the other quarter, independent of him." - John Calvin

Interlude

Musical Prelude

Welcome

Meditation for Worship: Once God has spoken; twice have I heard this: that power belongs to God. - Psalm 62:11

"The firm belief of God's power is of great concern and moment in religion. Faith is never quite laid by till the soul questions the power of God. "Oh, he cannot pardon, he cannot save!" The life and vigor of faith is very much concerned in the belief of God's power. It is, indeed, one of the first steps to all religion, thus it is put in the front of our creed, "I believe in God the Father Almighty!" Whoever believes this first article will more easily believe all the rest." - William Wisheart

Meditation for Worship: Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy upon us, for we have had more than enough of contempt.
- Psalm 123:3

"These are the trials of Zion's worshippers: silent contempt, open misrepresentation, fierce opposition. Religion, their last comfort, is despised; peace, their first desire, is denied. Anxious to devote themselves in the spirit of humble and earnest piety to the duties of their appointed sphere, they find enemies in open outcry and array against them. But God is their refuge, and to him they go."

Meditation for Worship: ...and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
— Psalm 23:6

"This should be at once the crown of all our hopes for the future, and the one great lesson taught us by all the vicissitudes of life. The sorrows and the joys, the journeying and the rest, the temporary repose, and the frequent struggles, all these should make us sure that there is an end which will interpret them all, to which they all point, for which they all prepare. It is here we get the table in the wilderness."

Meditation for Worship: Oh, that salvation for Israel would come out of Zion! When the LORD restores the fortunes of his people, let Jacob rejoice, let Israel be glad.

- Psalm 14:7

"Zion the church is no Savior; neither dare we trust in her ministries or ordinances, and yet salvation comes to men through her. The hungry multitudes are fed by the hand of the disciples, who delight to act as the servitors of the gospel feast. What a reason for maintaining in the utmost purity and energy all the works of the church of the living God!"

Meditation for Worship: The rules of the LORD are true, and righteous altogether. — Psalm 19:9b

"David shows that whatever men undertake to do at the mere suggestion of their own minds, without having a regard to the law of God as a rule, is error and falsehood. He could not have more effectually stirred us up to love, and zealously to live according to the law, than by giving us this warning, that all those who order their life, without having any respect to the law of God, deceive themselves, and follow after mere delusions."

— John Calvin

Musical Prelude

Welcome

Meditation for Worship: When they were few in number, of little account, and sojourners in it, wandering from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another people, he allowed no one to oppress them; he rebuked kings on their account, saying, "Touch not my anointed ones, do my prophets no harm!"

- Psalm 105:12-15

"God can stop not only hands from spoiling, but hearts from desiring."

- Joseph Caryl

Interlude

Call to Worship Psalm 76:10-12

LEADER: Surely the wrath of man shall praise you;

PEOPLE: the remnant of wrath you will put on like a belt.

LEADER: Make your vows to the LORD your God and perform them;

PEOPLE: let all around him bring gifts to him who is to be feared,

LEADER: who cuts off the spirit of princes,

ALL: who is to be feared by the kings of the earth.

Meditation for Worship: Arise, O God, judge the earth; for you shall inherit the nations!
- Psalm 82:8

"Come, you judge of all mankind, put the bad judges to your bar and end their corruption and villainy. Here is the world's true hope of rescue from the fangs of tyranny. The last days shall see him enthroned, and all unrighteous potentates broken like potter's vessels by his potent scepter. The second advent is still the earth's brightest hope. Come quickly, even so, come, Lord Jesus."
- Charles H. Spurgeon

Welcome

Meditation for Worship: Confirm to your servant your promise, that you may be feared. - Psalm 119:38

"There is a class of men whose minds are naturally skeptical and unbelieving, and for such men such a prayer is peculiarly appropriate. But for no one can it be improper to pray that the word of God may always seem to them to be true; that their minds may never be left to the influence of doubt and unbelief."
- Albert Barnes

Interlude

Call to Worship Psalm 68:19-21

LEADER: Blessed be the Lord, who daily bears us up;

PEOPLE: God is our salvation.

LEADER: Our God is a God of salvation,

PEOPLE: and to God, the Lord, belong deliverances from death.

LEADER: But God will strike the heads of his enemies,

ALL: the hairy crown of him who walks in his guilty ways.

Musical Prelude

Welcome

Meditation for Worship: That they may know that you alone, whose name is the LORD, are the Most High over all the earth.
- Psalm 83:18

"Josephus says that Alexander the Great, when on his triumphal march, being met near Jerusalem by the Jewish high priest, on whose mitre was engraved the name of Jehovah, approached by himself and adored that name, and was disarmed of his hostile intent. There was significance and power in the glorious old name as written by the Jews. But the name of Jesus is now far more mighty in the world."

- The Dictionary of Illustrations, 1872

Interlude

Call to Worship Psalm 33:1,4,12

LEADER: Shout for joy in the LORD, O you righteous!
PEOPLE: Praise befits the upright.
LEADER: For the word of the LORD is upright,
PEOPLE: and all his work is done in faithfulness.
LEADER: Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD,
ALL: the people whom he has chosen as his heritage!

Welcome

Meditation for Worship: I will look with favor on the faithful in the land, that they may dwell with me; he who walks in the way that is blameless shall minister to me.
- Psalm 101:6

"He who gets a faithful servant gets a treasure, and he ought to do anything sooner than to part with him. Those who are not faithful to God will not be likely to be faithful to men; if we are faithful ourselves, we shall not care to have those about us who cannot speak the truth or fulfill their promises; we shall not be satisfied until all the members of our family are upright in character."
- Charles Spurgeon

Interlude

Meditation for Worship: If you see a thief, you are pleased with him.
- Psalm 50:18a

"This was literally true of the Scribes and Pharisees. They consented to the deeds of Barabbas, a robber, when they preferred him to Jesus Christ, and they joined with the thieves on the cross in reviling him; and in a spiritual sense, they stole away the word of the Lord, taking away the key of knowledge from the people and putting false glosses upon the sacred writings."

Second Advent Sunday Peace Ephesians 2:13-17

Meditation for Worship: ...for he will speak peace to his people, to his saints;
- Psalm 85:8b

“When the child of God wants peace, he can have no peace till God speak it. Let God’s people be in never so great distress, yet it is an easy thing for God to give peace to them. Mark the expression here used: it is but speaking peace, that is, it is as easy for him to give peace as it is for you to speak a word: it is no more to him. Then our comfort is, that as he only must do it, so he easily can do it, even with a word.”
- Thomas Goodwin

Interlude

Call to Worship

Habakkuk 2:18, 20

LEADER: What profit is an idol when its maker has shaped it,

PEOPLE: a metal image, a teacher of lies?

LEADER: For its maker trusts in his own creation

PEOPLE: when he makes speechless idols.

LEADER: But the LORD is in his holy temple;

ALL: let all the earth keep silence before him.
