Meditation for Worship: The earth is the LORD's and the fullness thereof. – Psalm 24:1a

Meditation for Worship: Of Solomon. Give the king your justice, O God, and your righteousness to the royal son!
- Psalm 72:1

"We see the analogy between Christ and Solomon. I do not apprehend, with the generality of interpreters, that by "the king" and "the king's son," David means himself and his son, but Solomon only, to whom both titles agree, as he was David's son, and anointed by him king during his lifetime."
Samuel Chandler

Musical Prelude

Welcome

Meditation for Worship: He built his sanctuary like the high heavens, like the earth, which he has founded forever.
– Psalm 78:69

"The building spoken of was founded to stand entire, even to the end of the world. If it is objected that the temple was destroyed by the Chaldeans and Assyrians, the answer is obvious, the stability celebrated consists in Christ alone; for if the ancient sanctuary is considered merely in itself without regard to that which it typified, it is only an empty shadow. God intended it to be a pledge to show that Christ was to come, thus perpetuity is justly attributed to it."
– John Calvin

Interlude

Call to Worship Psalm 98:1-2

LEADER: Oh sing to the LORD a new song,
PEOPLE: for he has done marvelous things!
LEADER: His right hand and his holy arm
PEOPLE: have worked salvation for him.

Meditation for Worship: Tremble, O earth, at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the God of Jacob, who turns the rock into a pool of water, the flint into a spring of water.

- Psalm 114:7-8

"The causing of water to gush forth out of the flinty rock is a practical proof of unlimited omnipotence and of the grace which converts death into life. Let the earth then tremble before the Lord, the God of Jacob. It has always trembled before him, and before him let it continue to tremble. For that which he has been he still ever is; and as he came once he will come again."

Meditation for Worship: Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised, and his greatness is unsearchable. - Psalm 145:3

"God is so great, that till Christ revealed the Father, Deity was lost in its own infinity to the perception of men. So the ancient philosophers, disputing as to the Divine Nature, were baffled by their own ingenuity, and they had to confess that they comprehended nothing of God except that he was incomprehensible. Without Christ, men can only find out about God that they never can find him."

Welcome

Meditation for Worship: Let me hear what God the LORD will speak, for he will speak peace to his people, to his saints; but let them not turn back to folly. - Psalm 85:8

"The voice of the Lord is comfortable, and his words are sweet to those that fear him. It is a plain sign that all is not well with us, when the voice of God does cast us into fear, when we are afraid to hear the word preached, when just reproofs of our sins are unwelcome to us, and anger us, and make us think the less of our minister that chides and threatens us." - Edward Marbury

"If you trust that strength which God has given to horses to save you, you make them your god. Use the strength of horses, but do not trust in it. It is as if God has said, "a horse will be a vain thing to save you; I can save you effectively without horses, and I will!"

- Joseph Caryl

LEADER: If it had not been the LORD who was on our side – let Israel now say,
PEOPLE: If it had not been the LORD who was on our side when people rose up against us,

Meditation for Worship: Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his saints. - Psalm 116:15

"The death of saints is precious to the Lord as he traces the duration of his people not upon the map of time, but upon the infinite scale of eternity. In it the Lord sees faith in opposition to sense, leaning upon the promise of God, resulting in the drawing out of tenderness from the surviving Christian friends. The death of saints is precious for that is their day of seeing Jesus face to face." - Patrick Pounden

"Those who have made God an enemy, and know it, cannot but see the whole creation at war with them, and have no true enjoyment of themselves, nor confidence, but a fearful looking for judgment. In the greatest dangers the righteous have a God of almighty power in whom to trust; they are not daunted in their duty whenever they face any difficulty." - Matthew Henry

Meditation for Worship: For the LORD will not forsake his people; he will not abandon his heritage. - Psalm 94:14

"The taunt of the ungodly has always been plausible in the short run, but what escapes the scoffer is the damning display he makes of himself when he fancies he can do as he likes. This is indeed part of God's purpose in keeping silent. But there is a solid ground for saying the Lord will not forsake his people; a person goes back on a pledge only for reasons of necessity or betrayal, neither of which can apply to God." - Derek Kidner

Jesus, on that Passover night, drank of the bitter wine of God's wrath, that he might refill the cup with joy and health for his people." - William Kay

Meditation for Worship: Pray for the peace of Jerusalem! May they be secure who love you! - Psalm 122:6

"By praying for Jerusalem's peace is meant such serene times wherein the people of God might enjoy his pure worship without disturbance. The church has always had her vicissitudes, sometimes fair, sometimes foul weather; at the same time that the Sun of peace brings day to one part of it, another is wrapped up in the night of persecution. Universal peace over all the churches is a great rarity."

Meditation for Worship: The rules of the LORD are true, and righteous altogether. – Psalm 19:9b

"David shows that whatever men undertake to do at the mere suggestion of their own minds, without having a regard to the law of God as a rule, is error and falsehood. He could not have more effectually stirred us up to love, and zealously to live according to the law, than by giving us this warning, that all those who order their life, without having any respect to the law of God, deceive themselves, and follow after mere delusions."

Welcome

Meditation for Worship: Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path. - Psalm 119:105

"What we all want is not to see wonders that daze us, and to be rapt in ecstatic visions and splendors, but a little light on the dark and troubled path we have to tread, a lamp that will burn steadfastly and helpfully over the work we have to do. The stars are infinitely more sublime, meteors infinitely more superb and dazzling; but the lamp shining in a dark place is infinitely closer to our practical needs."

- From "The Expositor" 1864
